Thank You

I can't begin to name all the people who have helped me through this time of caring for Dad - my relatives, my church family, Homestead family, school family, friends, neighbors, Weeks family - so many have given acts of kindness to me and to Dad and I am so thankful.

Darold "Pete" Vanderhoff, of Garden City, KS, died on Monday Oct. 3 at Homestead Health and Rehabilitation. He was born on March 8, 1924, in Alta, Iowa to George and Anna Kluge Vanderhoff.

Darold married Jurelle Titshaw in 1948 in Denver, CO; they had two daughters; Donna Johnson of Colorado Springs, CO and Jane Vanderhoff of Garden City.

Darold served in the US Army in Yakima, WA and El Paso, TX.

Darold was a technical illustrator/writer and artist, and worked at major aircraft corporations around the US, including Atlanta, Orlando, St. Louis, Dallas, and Ft. Collins, CO.

He was also a craftsman, building toys, furniture, and decorative items, along with landscape painting. An avid reader, Darold had a large collection of resource books which he took great pleasure in reading.

He continued working at Sears until the age of 85.

Jurelle passed away in 1996; Darold married Peggy Ramey Colbert in 1979; she survives.

Darold was preceded in death by his parents, and sisters, Dorothy May Vanderhoff and Zelva Clarine Dickinson.

He is survived by daughters, Donna Johnson and Jane Vanderhoff; sister, Margil Floy Vanderhoff of Fresno, CA; niece, Elaine Frasca (Carlo, Jeremy) of Snohomish WA; granddaughter, Cindy Wright; great grandchildren, Taylor and Trevor Clanton of Lubbock, TX. Also special to Darold are Peggy's children, Edward (Sue) Colbert, Ken (Marilyn) Colbert, Diane (Mike) Ojile and Steve Colbert, along with their children and great grandchildren.

Suggested memorial contributions are to Grace Bible Church, in care of Weeks Family Funeral Home & Crematory, PO Box 1200, Sublette, Ks 67877. Condolences may be left online at WeeksFamilyFuneralHome.com
